FOREWARD

The Directory of Labour Organizations in Manitoba is produced to provide a convenient reference document of the unions and employees' associations operating in the province, and to provide basic statistical information on union membership and congress affiliation.

The information regarding union membership in Manitoba was derived by Statistics Canada under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act (CALURA). The Act applies to every international and national labour union having 100 or more members resident in Canada. In 1983, amendments to the Act resulted in many new labour organizations being required to report to Statistics Canada for the first time. The figures reported in this document relate to the year 1988.

Every effort has been made to provide an up-to-date listing of labour organizations in Manitoba. Your assistance in pointing out any errors or omissions will be appreciated.

SUMMARY OF UNION MEMBERSHIP IN MANITOBA - 1988

In 1988, there were 155,129 union members in Manitoba, an increase of 1,902 (1.2 percent) from a year earlier.

Unionized workers represented 29 percent of the 1988 average Manitoba labour force or 36.1 percent of the paid workers in the province in 1988 (the same level as in 1987). In Canada in 1988, union members constituted 34.2 percent of all paid workers.

The four largest unions in Manitoba in terms of membership in 1988 were: the Manitoba Government Employees' Association (MGEA) with 22,118 members, the Canadian Union of Public Employees (17,666 members), the Manitoba Teachers' Society (13,496) and the United Food and Commercial Workers' International Union (13,135). Table 2 provides a list of all unions in Manitoba with a membership of 2,000 or greater.

Approximately 77 percent of Manitoba unions were affiliated with a national and/or international congress or confederation of unions in 1988. The Canadian Labour Congress (CLC) with an affiliated membership of 101,701 accounted for 65.6 percent of Manitoba's unionized workers.

In Part I of this directory, those labour organizations falling under provincial jurisdiction are denoted by a single asterisk. Approximately 117,038 members were represented in 1988. Two asterisks denote unions under federal jurisdiction and represented approximately 18,701 members. Unions having locals falling under both provincial and federal jurisdictions are denoted by three asterisks and had approximately 19,390 members in 1988.

Please Note:

In 1983, amendments to the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act (CALURA) became effective which resulted in many new labour organizations being required to report to Statistics Canada for the first time. Beginning in 1983, the Act applies to every international and national labour union having 100 or more members resident in Canada. The amendments resulted in a significant increase in the number of union members in 1983 and produced a discontinuity in the membership data from previous years.
